

Source:

Institutional Communication Office

On October 15, the Minister of Communications, Jorge Luis Perdomo Di-Lella visited the scientific and technological park from the province of Matanzas. The purpose of this center is to develop all-around ICT solutions to elevate life quality and participation levels among the local population.

During the visit to Matanzas, the Minister met with the workers of the territorial division of RadioCuba, a staff that was awarded the National Vanguard Award in 2018.

---