

Nowadays, we already have a 70% of digital television coverage for the population, and we signed new agreements to acquire new transmitters and equipment and to extend even more the coverage of the DTTV signal in the territory.

---