

Source:

Tomado del Blog MincomCuba

The general of division José Antonio Carrillo Gómez, president of the Association of Combatants of the Cuban Revolution and Osvaldo Martínez García, general director of Joven Club signed a collaboration agreement between both institutions.

Integrating and enriching the quality of our products and services, bringing new technologies to the Association of Combatants and exalting the revolutionary history of our country have been elements reflected in the collaboration agreement between Joven Club and the Association of Combatants of the Cuban Revolution.

Major General José Antonio Carrillo Gómez, president of the National Association of Combatants of the Cuban Revolution and Osvaldo Martínez García, general director of Joven Club, refer to the advantages and importance of this agreement for the growth of both institutions.

Strengthening links in terms of historical content and bringing new technologies together are goals established by this agreement.

---