With the presence of the Vice Minister of Communications, Rafael Solis Martínez and the co-worker Ruben Lloga Sixto, the act of recognition of the 52 workers who are turning fifty in the Communications system is carried out at the Viñales cinema, Pinar del Río.

The fiftieth anniversary of the Communications Union paid tribute this morning to our National Hero, José Martí: Homeland is humanity.

Communicators for a Developing Society.

Congratulations to the communications workers for their delivery and for continuing to defend our conquests.
