

Institutional Communication Office

The fiftieth anniversary of the Communications Union paid tribute this morning to our National Hero, José Martí: Homeland is humanity.

Communicators for a Developing Society.

Congratulations to the communications workers for their delivery and for continuing to defend our conquests.