

Source:

Office of Institutional Communication GECC

Following the business strategy of expanding the services offered to the population, in spite of COVID-19, the Companies of the Correos de Cuba Business Group in Eastern and Central Havana extend international money ordering services to several of their facilities in the capital city, which, as of today, are only received from Spain, Chile and Uruguay.

In the Eastern Havana Postal Services Company those services are expanded to the following facilities: In the municipality of Guanabacoa, Havana 11, located at 309 División St. between Máximo Gómez St. and Cadena St. In the municipality of San Miguel del Padrón, Havana 10, at 19331 Calzada de Güines St. between Calzada de San Miguel St. and Gabriel St. In the municipality of Cotorro, Havana 40, at 2025 101st St. between 20th St. y 22nd St. The postal services of Havana 25 in Alamar are still offered by this company.

The Central Havana Postal Services Company will also start offering international money ordering services at the postal offices located on La Esquina de Tejas, in the municipality of Cerro; and at 512nd Obispo St. in the municipality of Old Havana. In the case of the municipality of Centro Habana they keep providing those services at the postal office on Universidad St. and at 271st Infanta St. between San Lazaro St. and Concordia St. In the municipality of Plaza de la Revolucion, those services will be offered at the postal office at the 967th of the 26th Ave. between 30th St. and 32nd St. In the municipality of 10 de Octubre, those services will be provided at the postal office of Luyanó, located at 309th Calzada de Luyanó St. between Fabrica St. and Reforma St.

The clients that so desire it can request home deliveries for that service and others as well from the Correos de Cuba Business Group.

---