On July 16, the workers from the Communications System celebrate the 49th anniversary of the creation of the National Union of Workers in the sectors of Communications, Informatics and Electronics (SNTCIE).

The General Secretary of the National Communications Union, Marisol Fuentes Ferrer, sent a congratulating message through her Facebook and Twitter profiles to the workers of that sector on the occasion of the 49th anniversary of the creation of the SNTCIE:

“Congratulations to the more than 50 000 members of the National Union of Workers in the sectors of Communications, Informatics and Electronics for arriving at their 49th anniversary convinced about the fact that a better world is possible because we work together, #WeThinkAsACountry and #WeAimHigher Communicators For A Developing Society. @CTC-Cuba #CubaComputerizes @MincomCuba @PresidenciaCuba

“Communication workers are more committed to the country’s present and future. #CubaComputerizes #WeAreMakingAREvolution @CTC-Cuba

The Communication workers reaffirm their commitment to making progress in the computerization of society and in the defense of the Revolution’s achievements.

Congratulations to the Communicators!
