Source:
Dirección de Comunicación Institucional

1. It is a 100% Cuban antivirus, so its greatest strength is to protect us and eliminate malicious programs that affect our country.
2. It helps increase the operating system's IT security.
3. It features a friendly and simple interface, which requires few resources.
4. It has easy access to updates, which are incremental and works on any Windows and UNIX operating system from XP+SP3.
5. Permanent protection.
6. Search on request.
7. It ensures the storage of product performance statistics and detected malicious codes, information that is useful if you want to keep track of product usage.
8. It has a quarantine mechanism as an isolation path for detected malicious code that cannot be decontaminated.
9. Provides the possibility of connecting to a corporate server for remote administration.
10. Checks and restores areas of the Operating System that may have been affected on your computer.
11. It is capable of responding to more than 98% of the malware reported in the country, whether made in Cuba or for Cuba, and many more.
12. It features the introduction of policies and groups.
13. It can be updated from an https site.
14. It can be updated from ZIP files.
15. It can be uninstalled even if the uninstallation folder or any of its plug-ins have been deleted.
16. In addition to having the only antivirus laboratory in the country that responds quickly to any problem with your equipment and a group of specialists who will provide technical support.