The young people of the Ministry of Communications and a representation of all the factors of the organization participated in the voluntary work session called by the UJC of the municipality, this February 6, in support of the production, in the month of the Communicator's Day to be celebrated on February 24 in homage to the First official transmission of Radio Rebelde in the Sierra Maestra on this same day in 1958.

The secretary of the Communist Party of Cuba (PCC) Committee of Mincom, Cecilia Valdés Milian in her personal Facebook profile recognized the work of the young people and expressed: “They are the #JóvenesMincom (Young People from MINCOM) and they are always there where their homeland needs them!!! Joyful, but deep!!! #SomosCuba #SomosContinuidad”
