Lázara Mercedes López Acea, member of the Political Bureau of the Central Committee of the Communist Party of Cuba; and Jorge Luis Perdomo, minister of Communications, chair the work meeting that evaluates the objectives and goals of the Cuban Telecommunications Company (ETECSA) for 2021.

The Twitter account of the First Vice Minister of Communications, Wilfredo González Vidal acknowledged the work of ETECSA:

"The Minister of Communications of #Cuba recognized the infinite pride felt for the work of @ETECSA_Cuba, with high commitment and unconditional support to the solution of the problems faced by the country and its transformations for the good of the economy #CubaInformatiza".

For his part, the Minister of Communications, Jorge Luis Perdomo Di-Lella wrote on his Twitter account: "Annual Working Meeting of @ETECSA_Cuba: In 2021 we will continue to expand services to the population and the economy, more Internet and 4G. Prioritize e-commerce and value-added services. Higher levels of cybersecurity. #CubaInformatiza #Cuba."
