From her personal Twitter account, the Minister of Communications, Mayra Arevich Marín, reaffirmed the commitment of communicators with the defense of the Revolution: ‘’Loyal to the legacy of our undefeated Commander in Chief, we will defend the Revolution. The workers from the Communications sector #SomosContinuidad #CubaViva‘’
‘’Loyal to the legacy of our undefeated Commander in Chief, we will defend the Revolution. The workers from the Communications sector #SomosContinuidad
#CubaViva‘’
The workers from the IT and Communications Business Group show their support on social media: ‘’For our achievements, denouncing the financial, commercial and economic blockade against #Cuba, reaffirming our commitment with the #Revolution and with the presence of comrade Raúl Castro, our 1st Secretary of the Cuban Communist Party and President of the Republic of #Cuba, Miguel Díaz Canel, the workers from #Geic along with the people from Havana, PRESENT #CubaViva #YoSigoAMiPresidente‘’
Magda Brito, director of Computerization at MINCOM, wrote the following words on Twitter: ‘’The achievements that Cubans enjoy nowadays have to be defended, for our children and for those that fought so hard for us to have a #CubaSoberana (Sovereign Cuba) #CubaViva‘’
The Vice Minister of Communications, Grisel Reyes León, restated the commitment with the Motherland and posted fragments of the song "El Necio" by Silvio Rodriguez: Yo quiero seguir jugando a lo perdido
Yo quiero ser a la zurda más que diestro
Yo quiero hacer un congreso del unido
Yo quiero rezar a fondo un "hijo nuestro"
...
Yo no sé lo que es el destino
Caminando fui lo que fui
Allá Dios, que será divino
Yo me muero como viví

The communicators showing their full support to the Government and the Revolution, reaffirm the words of the First Secretary of the Central Committee of the Cuban Communist Party and President of the Republic of Cuba, Miguel Diaz-Canel Bermúdez. Let's put our hearts into the common work. A heart that matches the size of our struggles. #JuntosPodemos ¡Hail a SOCIALIST, independent and sovereign #Cuba!
