The Minister of Communications, Mayra Arevich Marín, from her official Twitter account, congratulated all Cederistas in Cuba on behalf of Communications workers: "Congratulations Cederistas! @MINCOMCuba drives the development and safe use of ICTs in all sectors of society and the informatization of services. On this 61st Anniversary of #CDRCuba we are more united to the neighborhood, defending our social project. #SomosDelBarrio"

In a different context, of the fight against COVID-19, Cuba celebrates the new anniversary of the largest mass organization in the country, created by Commander in Chief Fidel Castro Ruz, on September 28, 1960.

"In every house a Committee" will be the guide of the traditional celebration that takes place today 27th waiting for the 28th, again virtually and from our homes, with our families.
