

Source:

Tomado de Radio Bayamo

During the governmental visit to the province of Granma, The Deputy Prime Minister, Jorge Luis Perdomo Di-Lella, and the Minister of Communications, Mayra Arevich Marín, visited the Territorial Division of the Telecommunications Company where they exchanged with professionals of the sector highlighting the importance of information and communications technologies, electronic commerce, virtual stores through online platforms, the importance of growing in fixed and mobile telephony and in the terrestrial television program.

Minister of Communications, on the second day of the governmental visit to the province of Granma As part of the second day of the governmental visit to the province of Granma, the Minister of Communications, Mayra Arevich Marín visited the headquarters of the Bayamo 1 post office and the Granma Postal Processing and Sorting Center.

During her tour of the territory, she exchanged with the Board of Directors of the Cuban Postal Company in the province.

He visited Desoft Granma. In the meeting with managers and workers, he discussed issues related to the national software developed by the entity, the need to work with the small and medium companies of the territory, the constant improvement of the workers and the importance of communication actions.

---