

Source:

Dirección de Comunicación Institucional

On November 6, First Deputy Minister of Communications, Wilfredo González Vidal, visited the Expocuba fairgrounds and met with exhibitors of sector entities present at the Havana International Fair about the novelties presented at the event and the program of activities in general.

He wished success to the exhibitors, who were grateful for the talks they held.

Wilfredo González Vidal, First Deputy Minister of Communications, from his official account on X wrote: #FIHAV2023 opens its doors to more than 60 countries and 800 companies between domestic and foreign, it's a unique space to continue the development of our economy, the #ICT present #ForDigitalTransformation #Cuba.

---